

THE CRIB BALL

Wine Sponsor

CornerStone

Aiming to be the most rewarding family owned wine company in Asia, Hock Tong Bee acts as a one-stop wine and spirit solution hub. It provides a myriad of wine-related products and services, and houses XII Degrees, boasting customers from all over the region.

As times progressed, Hock Tong Bee has managed to remain dynamic and has won countless industry awards, including the 2009 inaugural Wine Distributor of the Year Award. Amidst all the success and recognition, Hock Tong Bee holds on to its core values and principles and does its part for society by supporting over 100 charities a year.

Co-sponsoring with Jia foundation.

Bartending Sponsor

Mitzo

Mitzo breaks the mould of Chinese dining by combining a contemporary take on Cantonese cuisine with an artisanal cocktail programme. It is located on the main artery of Orchard Road.

When night falls, like a true chameleon, Mitzo takes on the persona of a modern supperclub, melding the lines between restaurant, cocktail bar and club.

Marco Pignotta - Chief Bartender

Possessing an excellent capacity for mixing great cocktails on the fly whilst maintaining good conversation, Assistant Bar Manager, Marco Pignotta is absolutely capable of delighting your tastebuds with his well-balanced and thoughtful concoctions. This Italian bartender's philosophy when it comes to concocting delicious cocktails is to use the freshest ingredients and to focus on simplicity. He prefers it when the process of putting together a cocktail is organic.

